LABOUR WILL SAVE OUR NHS

- 8,000 more GPs
- 20,000 more nurses
- 3,000 more midwives
- 5,000 more care workers

Patients have welcomed Ed Miliband's commitment to invest in 8,000 more GPs, 20,000 more nurses, 3,000 more midwives and 5,000 more home-care workers as part of Labour's plan to build an NHS and social care system with the time to care for those who rely on it.

NHS IN CRISIS

David Cameron's reorganisation has left the NHS in crisis: in the last twelve months over a million people have waited more than four hours in A&E, and 60 per cent of patients say they wait more than two days for a GP appointment. Experts are warning that hospitals are understaffed, and it is patients who are paying the price.

As another teen is killed crossing road, coroner supports our campaign

CORONER Tom Osborne is backing MK NEWS' Walk Safe campaign, to get more people using the redways and underpasses, after another resident died crossing a road.

It comes in the same week as the mother of a 12-year-old who died in December questions how another death has been allowed to happen on our roads.

Justine Connolly, 18, from Medbourne, is the fourth person to die in the last 14 months.

Readers' views on campaign

ON MKWeb's Facebook page Sharon Lyons said: "There should be more signs on our roads slowing fast drivers down. I totally agree the redways and underpasses need to be made safer for all age groups to use. How many more lives have to be lost before something is done? All you see now when you drive round MK is flowers on grass verges."

Lesley Chattaway: "It's a terrible tragedy but I don't see how the road system is at fault. There are no pavements because there is no reason for pedestrians to be on the main roads."

"Instead of blaming the roads, improve the redways and underpasses. If there is no other way to cross then build more foot bridges."

Victoria Pope: "I use redways all the time and nothing has happened to me."

Deborah Clancy: "I tend to drive to the speed limit, and often get cars overtake me or honk. Everyone is always rushing!"

Fence goes up at site of teen's death

A FENCE is being erected on the central reservation of V8 Marlborough Street following the death of Neesha-Leigh Dundon, 12.

As MK NEWS previously reported, Neesha-Leigh died in December after being hit by a car when she decided to cross the road between two bus stops instead of using the underpass that was just metres away.

The city's roads claimed another victim last Wednesday when 18-year-old Justine Connolly died after being hit by a blue Ford KA on V2 Tattenhoe Street on Friday, April 17.

Justine also crossed the road to get to her home in Medbourne when there was a underpass nearby.

MK NEWS has reported four deaths in the last 14 months after cars collided with pedestrians. In March 2014, Victoria Rhodes died crossing V11 Tongwell Street.

Milton Keynes Council is in the process of erecting a fence on the central reservation of this road because residents continue to cross to the bus stops.

At the inquest of Neesha-Leigh yesterday, coroner Tom Osborne welcomed the news that Milton Keynes Council will also be erecting a fence to separate the bus stops on the V8. He said: "People always want to take the quickest route. When the fence was first erected between the bus stops outside Milton Keynes Hospital, people attempted to cut it down."

The council launched its road safety review in June after Mr Osborne called for action.

Councillor Matt Clifton, cabinet member responsible for roads, could not give a date for when the review will end but said: "The review will be undertaken as quickly as possible, but it needs to be thorough."

Men at work: The fence going up on the V11 Tongwell Street

Call to use underpasses

CORONER Tom Osborne's comments about people cutting down the fence outside Milton Keynes University Hospital, rang a bell with members of Netherfield Residents Association. Janet Bobey, 54, the group's secretary and treasurer, said: "At first, the fence outside the hospital between the two bus stops was like chicken wire so many teenagers used to break it down or jump over it. But it is working really well now as it is stronger so people can't get over it that easily.

"I am really worried that if people don't use the redways and underpasses, the speeds on the roads will be reduced. This may encourage more people to cross the roads and allow people to build on the grass areas, taking more green spaces away. "Milton Keynes was born on the grid road system which works well.

"The underpass near the hospital is now well used and The Parks Trust has cut the bushes back. If people have problems with the underpasses, maybe more overpasses should be built."

Mrs Bobey is also backing MK NEWS' campaign to change resident's attitude to redways and underpasses.

coronor call for action

'It is not safer to cross the roads'

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

AT THE inquest of 12-year-old Neesha-Leigh Dundon, who died crossing V8 Marlborough Street in December, coroner Tom Osborne called for more to be done to stop residents crossing city roads.

Addressing Neesha's mum Kayleigh at Milton Keynes Coroner's Court yesterday, Mr Osborne said: "It might be quicker but it is certainly not safer to cross the roads."

"The system in Milton Keynes is designed on the roads, with a redway and underpass system, and pedestrians and the roads should not meet."

"I am satisfied that there was nothing the driver could have done to avoid the collision."

During the inquest, collision investigation officer for Thames Valley Police, Steven Moffat, told the court that a friend walking with Neesha had suggested using the nearby underpass but she had said that crossing the road would be quicker. It was around 5.30pm on December 11.

The friend, who cannot be named for legal reasons, crossed before Neesha and witnesses say was narrowly missed by another car.

Mr Moffat then believes Neesha, who was in dark clothing, was either walking slowly or may have been waiting in the second lane of the V8 for the cars in lane one to pass. As a result Mr Moffat

"Neesha said no it is quicker than going in the underpass. This is a big issue in Milton Keynes."

suggested that she did not see Mr Lewis Pugsley, from Milton Keynes, who also did not see her when he was driving his black VW Golf at the speed limit of 70mph after overtaking two vehicles in lane one.

Dr Armin, from Central Milton Keynes Medical Centre, concluded that Neesha died at the scene from multiple injuries after hitting the car's windscreen and being thrown several yards.

As MK NEWS has previously reported, Neesha's mum Kayleigh Dundon, 29, from Bradwell Common, said she does not blame the driver. She added that the first thing she wanted to do following the tragedy was to write to him explaining that.

After Mr Osborne summed up, Mrs Dundon added: "I will keep shouting about getting people to use underpasses instead of choosing to cross the road. Even when we were laying flowers for Neesha, people would cross the road to join us."

Grieving mum's plea for people not to take risk

KAYLEIGH Dundon is urging people to support MK NEWS' Walk Safe campaign to encourage people to use underpasses instead of crossing roads.

Following the death of 18-year-old Justine Connolly last Wednesday, she said: "What more is it going to take until changes are made? Something needs to be done so no one else has to go through this."

"Another young girl with a lot to live for lost her life. I know the heartache the family are now going through."

"We are trying to fund a memorial where Neesha died to make people think twice before making the same decision."

Remembered: Tributes at the scene of Justine Connolly's accident

Tributes for 'brightly burning light'

FAMILY and friends of 18-year-old Justine Connolly, who died last Wednesday, have been paying tribute to their 'brightly burning light'.

Justine, who was a former Hazeley Academy Student and was studying media at Milton Keynes College, died after a collision with a car on V2 Tattenhoe Street when she was walking to her home in Medbourne.

Her family said: "The brightly burning light that was the life of Justine came to a despairingly premature end after a five-day fight for life."

"She was a beautiful girl both inside and out." A huge floral tribute has been left at the scene of the incident by many of Justine's friends.

One friend, Shannon Wedley, said: "My beautiful best friend, life without you is going to be so hard."

Invest in the redways

OUR local traffic in Monkston is awful at the moment and will be far worse once Oakgrove is completed, the new school is operational and other new car owners move into the new housing area.

However, the idea that speed limits may be reduced and traffic lights installed to replace roundabouts is an absurd and ill-thought-out idea. I presume it was dreamt up by people who don't live in the locality.

The only reason people here can get out of our estate is due to the naturally variable speeds used by drivers in Milton Keynes.

Contrary to the implication often espoused by supporters of a reduced speed limit, we don't all drive around madly at full speed. Some drivers and different types of vehicles drive at different speeds. Buses and lorries, for example, will drive much slower than the limit. This automatically creates the gaps in the traffic that allow us to join the main carriageways.

Reduce the speed limit and everyone will be travelling at approximately the same speed, thus no gaps. We do get queues but mostly at rush hour. Traffic lights won't solve that, they will make it worse, increase noise levels, slow the traffic and create increased emissions by stopping traffic, actually causing queues in quieter times of the day when no natural queue would occur.

Just to alter roads leading to the motorways has seemed to have taken years, caused huge traffic problems and cost massive amounts of money. Is that what we really want throughout Milton Keynes?

As for our speed limits discouraging walkers and cyclists – do walkers walk on the road? Does anyone really think reducing the speed would stop the few people who decide to run across the roads? A lower speed would possibly encourage more to have a go.

Create natural barriers to discourage the few who try to run across the roads. Run education programmes in schools and advertise the redways to new residents a little more. Some are totally unaware they exist.

We have a fabulous network of redways for cyclists. This city is more advanced than most with its cycle ways. I do agree they should be improved and expanded and I'd much rather the vast amounts of money that would be spent on installing traffic lights, signage, road works to change layouts and installations of cables everywhere was spent to improve rather than destroy something that works so well. Visit other places that have similar populations and see how good our roads really are.

The cost to change the road system will be huge. I'd guess we are talking hundreds of thousands of pounds? And how much would it cost to run these lights? We have had street lights off to save money so presumably the power and maintenance costs would be quite significant!

Neighbourhood plan

MILTON Keynes residents who have already received ballot papers by post may be surprised to see that, as well as voting for an MP and a councillor, they are being invited to participate in a 'business referendum on the neighbourhood plan for Central Milton Keynes'.

The problem seems to be that the council has had to act on its own initiative on this because it's a UK first. So, although there are two referendums, one for the business community and one for residents, it's been decided that they both have to have exactly the same wording (they will be different colours, though, which will certainly help when it comes to the count!).

The wording on the ballot paper, which most of us will see for the first time on May 7, is 'Do you want Milton Keynes Council to use the neighbourhood plan for Central Milton Keynes to help it decide planning applications in the neighbourhood area?'

Just to make things even more confusing, the plan and the explanatory leaflet (which can be downloaded from the council's website), are entitled 'The CMK Alliance Plan 2026'!

Even those who know what the business/neighbourhood/alliance plan is, are unlikely to be familiar with all 124 pages of its contents. So, for anyone who's beginning to feel like giving up at this stage, the essence of the matter is as follows: The CMK Alliance Plan is a pioneering business neighbourhood plan prepared by an alliance of local residents and business leaders.

It builds on the success of the last 50 years and plans the continuing growth of the city centre over the next 15.

The plan takes a balanced approach: promoting growth and development while retaining CMK's competitive advantage as a distinctive place, with a high quality of life and range of amenities.

There are almost 120 acres of land yet to be fully developed in CMK. Here, the plan proposes to:

- Expand and diversify the retail offer of CMK
- Build more offices to attract jobs

■ Reserve key sites for major opportunities, such as the proposed development of a university

■ Complete almost 5,000 new dwellings

■ Enrich our social, sporting and cultural life with new facilities.

So please overlook the confusion and vote 'Yes'. It really matters to us all.

It's speed that kills

WHO should we believe on speeding on MK roads – one of the original designers of Milton Keynes, who published details a few months ago, or Alderman Paul Bartlett (MK NEWS, April 22)?

I would rather believe the former that the speed limits are far too high.

In substance, Mr Bartlett repeats the same illogical argument that speed does not kill but rather mistakes do. This is very similar to right-wing politicians in the USA who argue that guns do not kill but people do.

Of course, a moment's thought could tell you that it is the combination that kills.

Model's image lifted to attract women online

Not me: Ali Gordon has been approached by women who thought they'd been in contact with him

'My photos used in fake profiles'

BY SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.com

A FITNESS and fashion enthusiast has discovered photographs of his face have been lifted from his blog and used to create fake online profiles.

Ali Gordon, 26, of Willen, told MK NEWS followers of his blog contacted him about accounts that had been made to lure women into relationships.

He said: "I was made aware of the first fake account around two years ago. A concerned mother contacted my boss and told him an employee, going under the name Macaulay Mathews, was harassing her daughter.

"The fake profile had used a picture of myself wearing a t-shirt with the company's logo. Of course, I explained to my boss this was definitely not me – and he explained the situation to the mother.

"I now receive around four messages a month from people telling me of new fake profiles using my pictures. They've not only created Facebook pages, they've created accounts on Instagram, Tinder, Twitter, Plenty of Fish and more. It's ridiculous.

"I was told one girl chatting to the 'fake me', arranged to meet with the person she was talking to. The guy she met was Indian and told her he was a colleague of mine and that he would take her to me. She was clearly spooked out and left immediately.

"I've also had girls from Ireland come up to me at V-Festival thinking I was a boy called Michael, who was having an online relationship with one of their friends on Tinder for over a year!

"It's really worrying as some girls get a real emotional connection to these fake accounts. But it's also quite dangerous for me. I'm lucky I have an understanding boss and girlfriend."

Mr Gordon has reported the accounts to the social media sites but has been unable to shut some of them down.

Wheely helpful: Ian Pateman serviced Ellis Stanley's bike for free. Inset: Ellis' garden in Emberton

Ellis, 93, back in the saddle

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

A 93-YEAR-OLD man who cycles and swims nearly every day in Emberton Park has been given a helping hand by a new bike shop.

Ellis Stanley had an accident on his bike when he collided with a car in Olney High Street. Both he and his bike were left slightly battered and bruised.

The pensioner, who has ridden his bike around the town since he was a boy, is a well-known sight for residents including Ian Pateman, 39, who wanted to help.

After seeing Ellis with his broken bike, Mr Pateman, who is a mechanic at the new bike shop 2pedalz in Rose Court, decided he would fix Ellis' bike for free.

Delighted with the offer Ellis is now back on his bike tending to his special garden in Emberton Park, going for a dip in the lake and feeding the ducks.

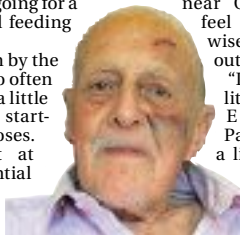

Ellis is also known by the staff at the park who often see him tending to a little patch of garden he started with ferns and roses.

Ellis, a resident at Broomfield Residential Care, in Yardley Road, said: "I have ridden my bike since I was a boy. My father owned Stanley Stationers on Market Square and I used to deliver papers on my bike.

"I only go back and forwards to Emberton Park on my bike to feed the ducks. I did strike the boot of a car near One Stop. I feel safe otherwise when I go out.

"I have got a little garden in Emberton Park and have a little spot on the lake where I swim."

Honda engineer a move into MK

BY SCOTT KIRK

scott.kirk@mk-news.com

HONDA Formula One engines will be built in Milton Keynes after it was announced the company will be building a new garage in the city.

Milton Keynes Development Partnership (MKDP) has agreed a deal with NL Property to build a new research and development (R&D) facility for Honda at Grampian Gate, Winterhill.

Honda's decision to move into the city comes as a further endorsement of Milton Keynes as a hub for motorsport technology and cutting-edge engineering.

A planning application has been submitted to Milton Keynes Council for the new facility, which will create about 35 full-time jobs. By 2018 it is expected to house 65 staff members.

Guy Harman, director and co-founder of NL Property, said: "NL Property is assisting Honda R&D and we are delighted to be expanding

Power of Dreams: Honda will build an F1 research and development facility in Winterhill, joining Red Bull Racing in the city Honda's F1 operations into Milton Keynes by creating a new R&D building.

"Honda is supplying its F1 engines and this facility will service that venture.

"Due to the dynamic nature of F1 we were delighted MKDP worked expeditiously with the team in ensuring the transaction was concluded to meet the needs of the F1 season.

"The professional nature of MKDP has played no small part in enabling the successful outcome for all and to the benefit of Milton Keynes."

Charles Macdonald, chief executive of MKDP, said: "This is great news and a good example of what can be achieved by working together to deliver greater benefit to MK. I would like to thank Honda and NL Property for their professionalism, as well as the home team, our board and council officers for their support and assistance delivering this milestone project."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. "Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole."

Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes & Leighton Buzzard areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. "The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated."

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Court 'ganging up' on accused

On trial: Tina Beloveth-Powerful is on trial over claims about the details on her company's website

Everest School trial adjourned after defence 'gets out of hand'

BY SCOTT KIRK

scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

A HEATED trial of a woman accused of publishing misleading information on her company's website had to be adjourned on Friday as the court clerk said the hearing was getting 'out of hand'.

Tina Beloveth-Powerful, 47, is standing trial at Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court after denying offences of being a trader engaged in a commercial practice which contains false information and omits details, fraud and offering to grant a degree.

Miss Beloveth-Powerful, who was defending herself, was warned by court clerk Sheila Firth that if she did not keep her voice down the trial would have to stop.

When the defendant continued to speak loudly, the clerk said: "This is getting out of hand. You have escalated your voice to an unacceptable level."

The court was told Miss Beloveth-Powerful runs The Everest School of Transformational Leadership, based at her home in North Third Street, CMK.

Hannah Tildesley, prosecuting, said details on the company's website were misleading, such as the claim degrees and other such qualifications were on offer, when in fact they weren't.

Miss Beloveth-Powerful said the business is in the planning stage and no-one had been defrauded.

She also accused the court of 'ganging up' on her, saying: "I am getting very upset."

The trial was adjourned until Friday, June 19 and Miss Beloveth-Powerful was granted unconditional bail.

Falling foul: Graphic designer Angelo Trofa with his controversial take on the Bolivian football strip

Design red carded

BY SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A GRAPHIC designer has received 'torrents of abuse' and even death threats from South America, over a picture of a new national football kit he sketched as a hobby.

Previous Net-A-Porter employee, Angelo Trofa, 26, from Water Eaton Road in Bletchley, said his design was inspired by the multi-coloured Whiphala flag, which represents the indigenous population of Bolivia.

After spending a month in Bolivia in January this year, he posted sketches of a new Bolivian kit inspired by the seven colours of the Whiphala flag on his Facebook page.

The flag, which represents Andes natives and therefore about 60 per cent of the country's population, was promoted to a national flag in 2009 and given equal status to the original Bolivian tricolour of red, yellow and green, the designer said.

However, some Bolivians do not feel the multi-coloured flag represents them. Bolivians who believe Angelo should have had 'more respect for the country and its traditions', have posted nearly 200 abusive comments on social media.

Mr Trofa said: "The non-indigenous population disregard it and don't associate themselves with it.

"My best friend is Bolivian and he warned me it was quite controversial, but I didn't expect to receive that much abuse.

"The abuse mainly came from angry Bolivian men – people saying they would kill me if I went back and that I was designing for the Nazis. The reaction was ridiculous."

A spokesman from the Embassy of Bolivia said: "Both flags are very political in terms of representation, region and political parties so it is not a shock that people have been aggressive. If you use the flag in a design, you should probably use both."

The cross dresser was happy to talk to students about his gel nails, high heels and fashion, while sharing his passion for politics and the Labour party.

Speaking to MK NEWS he said: "They were really switched on and were getting engaged with the questions."

"We also went to speak to performing arts students and at least two thirds of them were registered to vote, which is great. If Labour gets elected we will bring the vote aged down to 16."

"It is important people can vote at 16 because it is life, they can sign up for the army at that age and get married. In the old days, 13 was the

Murder linked to stabbing at Bowl

In custody: Paul Monk was arrested in Spain

BY SCOTT KIRK

scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

A FUGITIVE who was arrested in Spain last week has been implicated in the kidnap and murder of a Liverpool man convicted of a stabbing at The National Bowl in Milton Keynes.

Paul Monk, 54, was arrested last Tuesday at his luxury villa in Alicante.

His extradition to the UK for alleged drug trafficking offences has been put on hold while an investigation continues into the murder of Francis Brennan, whose body washed up on a Spanish beach last year.

Brennan fled the UK after admitting to stabbing someone at a Swedish House Mafia gig in Milton Keynes in September 2012.

The 25-year-old vanished in January 2014 after being kidnapped in Javea, Alicante, by three men disguised as police officers.

His body was discovered in a heavily-taped plastic bag on the Zenia beach in Orihuela in March, 2014.

The National Crime Agency and Merseyside Police have been supporting the Guardia Civil-led investigation.

In a statement, the Guardia

Civil said Monk was an associate of Paul Scott, who it believes orchestrated Brennan's kidnap and murder.

Scott was sentenced to 14 years in prison at Liverpool Crown Court in January for separate drugs offences.

Following that hearing, he was arrested by Merseyside Police on a European arrest warrant issued by the Spanish authorities for the murder and kidnap charge.

He has now been remanded in custody until July when extradition proceedings to Spain are expected to begin.

Big Tinie moment

Bethany is inspired by star to develop new project

BY SARAH LEE

editor@mk-news.co.uk

A TEENAGE girl has been inspired by popular musician Tinie Tempah to follow her dreams to make a success of the community project she pioneered.

Bethany Grant, 17, from Caldecotte, is a member of the National Citizen Service (NCS), a youth programme that runs three times a year during the school holidays.

She has created a programme called GenerationMix to teach the elderly in care homes across Milton Keynes how to use technology so they can stay in touch with family and friends.

An ambassador for NCS, Tinie surprised 50 graduates, including Bethany, at an NCS youth board meeting in London, to reveal he'll be working with the organisation this year.

It was during NCS that Bethany first took part in volunteering, renovating a garden for grieving parents in Wolverton. Since then social action work has become a real passion for her.

She said: "Meeting Tinie Tempah was surreal."

"He took the time to tell us about his experience starting out in the music industry and the need to find work that he wasn't passionate about in order to fund his dream of making a music video.

"It was really nice that he could sympathise with our dreams – even though they are of a different nature."

"I really think my project can help a lot of elderly people in Milton Keynes to keep in touch with their families via Facebook or FaceTime.

"My grandparents love the idea and I've even helped them with technology to help them use iPads abroad and to keep in contact with me."

WHY YOU SHOULD BE WORRIED IF YOUR BANK NO LONGER OFFERS YOU FINANCIAL ADVICE

We were recently approached by a lady, Susan, on behalf of her mother, Dorothy, who has been left high and dry by her bank, HSBC's, financial advisory arm who no longer offer financial advice!

Dorothy who is aged 83 and lives locally in Milton Keynes has £230K invested in an HSBC discretionary fund management (DFM) service as well as a further £100K invested in another HSBC DFM which is held in a trust for the benefit of her grandchildren.

What is truly shocking is that she recently visited her branch seeking some advice and was told that HSBC no longer offers financial advice for customers!!!! Dorothy is worried and doesn't know where to turn to for advice.

Her daughter Susan lives in the North West of England. When she found out about her mother's dilemma she immediately did a search on Google and found two useful websites one of which was unbiased.co.uk and the other vouchedfor.co.uk. Unbiased.co.uk is a directory of independent financial advisers whereas vouchedfor.co.uk is a testimonials website for professional advisers. She chose us because she wanted a firm of Chartered Financial Planners with a specialism in investment management and estate planning including Inheritance Tax mitigation. She supplemented her research with checking our website at wealthandtax.co.uk focussing on our many client video testimonials.

We recently had our first meeting with Dorothy and her son Brian at our offices with Susan joining the meeting on a Skype video call from her living room in the North West of England. The meeting went very well.

We have been asked to produce a Wealth And Tax Management plan for Dorothy to include our proposals for managing her investments, her grandchildren's trust investments and our strategies for protecting her wealth and reducing her Inheritance Tax liability. She has an estate worth more than £1 million. Needless to say we accepted her invitation!

Dorothy and her family are now reassured and looking forward to receiving their plan with confidence.

Smash, crash, kick

Getting ready for action:
Reporter Jessica Duncan

BY SCOTT KIRK

scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

YOU may think it is socially acceptable to run full pelt into a stranger and knock them to the ground, you of course may not, but that's exactly what I have been up to.

And rest assured, I pushed over anyone who got in my way and if I got in theirs they bowled me over too.

This was the brilliant and completely mad game of bubble football that I and fellow MK NEWS reporter Jessica Duncan played down at the all-weather pitches by the Lakeside pub at Willen Lake. What a great laugh. The concept behind this exciting game is zorbing but with your legs dangling out so you can kick a football.

And when I say kick, I mean try to kick, because you have to watch out for the other team advancing on you and trying to knock you over. And more often than not, they do.

There is nothing funnier than seeing someone on the ground with their legs flailing around as they desperately try to get back onto their feet.

It's a lot more tiring than you would expect.

It gets very hot in the bubble but it is a very fun way of improving your fitness levels.

Zorb Wars is the company behind the innovative game and operations manager Lewis Pierrepont thought there was a place in Milton Keynes for something like bubble football after having a go at it on a stag do 18 months ago.

"We tried it, liked it and on that basis thought other people might like it," he said.

"It's a good venue for it here. It's about fitness and letting people have a laugh. It's something everyone can do together."

Bubble football is not the only activity on offer though as people can also take part in bubble bulldog, sumo, bowling or a duel.

Standing their ground: Some actual football breaks out in between all the falling over

Harry Press, who lives in and runs the Lakeside, had a go at bubble football.

He said: "It's awesome and you can't beat it."

"Every one smashes you from every side. It's all good fun and there's not many places you can do something like this."

If there is enough public interest, the company will look into the possibility of holding a bubble football tournament during the summer.

Special day acts as a showcase for city

BY SARAH LEE

editor@mk-news.co.uk

AS DESTINATION Milton Keynes gears up for the third #LoveMK Day tomorrow, residents have the opportunity to prove the city is much more than a 'concrete cow jungle' and to show just how great it is.

The aim of #LoveMK Day is not only to promote Milton Keynes as a leisure and business destination, but also to harness the pride that many people have in the city.

Tourism brings in more than £200million to the area and by encouraging the MK community to get involved in promoting the city, it could increase the wider benefits even further.

Milton Keynes has been recognised as one of the country's most important cities for business – after coming out on top once again in the prestigious Centre for Cities report – but many often forget it is also known for its parks and lakes.

Carys Underwood, the marketing manager at Destination MK, is hoping

Scenic show: The teardrop lake at Loughton is a big attraction the scheme will help people show their love for the city.

She said: "The abundance of green spaces, woods, lakes and waterways give Milton Keynes a fresh and wide-open feel."

"We get told all the time that it's one of the main reasons visitors and residents love MK and we couldn't agree more!"

From the Blue Lagoon to Caldecotte Lake, from Howe Park Wood to Campbell Park, there is no shortage of picturesque wonder here.

So, as part of tomorrow's #LoveMK Day, MK NEWS has compiled a list of Milton Keynes' best beauty spots available to view on our website – www.mkweb.co.uk

■ Don't forget, readers can continue to send in pictures of the city for the chance to win a Milton Keynes Monopoly board. See page 4 for more details.

Classic cars to gear up for ball

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

THE Hope for Hollie charity is literally having a ball, with the big night boasting an appearance by X Factor winner Sam Bailey and lots of vehicles from MK Classic Cars.

The Best of British-themed event, which will raise funds for MKWeb and MK NEWS' charity of the year, takes place at the Doubletree in Hilton on June 13.

On Monday night students from Shenley Brook End School posed in their gladrags on some of the MK Classic Cars which will be at the ball for people to get their photos with.

MK NEWS also plans to hold a competition where a classic car will drive you to the ball. The ball will continue the charity's work to raise awareness of children fighting the rare and life-limiting condition, Niemann Pick Type C.

The charity has already received huge support from businesses, including Murrays the Printers, Covered Chameleon, Doubletree, MKWeb, MK NEWS and It's Covered.

But they are still looking for some amazing lots for their auction.

The black tie ball, which starts at 6.30pm, includes a drinks reception, three-course meal, live entertainment and disco, charity auction, raffle and much more.

Anyone who would like to support the occasion by donating auction prizes or buying tickets, priced at £60 per person, should email events@hopeforhollie.co.uk.

Our aim is to offer an exceptional carpet and vinyl service, with quality products and materials. If a jobs worth doing, its worth doing well.

"Where Lives are Changed"

Will power: The MK Dons striker Will Grigg clinched the player of the month award. He is pictured with fan Anthony Barrett, who presented him with his prize, and Dons manager Karl Robinson

Will's the main man

BY SCOTT KIRK

scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

WILL Grigg has been awarded the MK Dons player of the month prize for March, following a vote on MKWeb.

The striker, on loan from Brentford, scored three goals in March, including a brace in the Dons' 4-1 victory over Notts County on March 21.

He also scored a crucial goal in the 1-1 draw against Walsall, where he received a hard time from fans as he used to play for the Bescot Stadium club.

Grigg was presented with a bottle of champagne prior to last Tuesday's 3-0 victory over Doncaster Rovers by fan Anthony Barrett – who also won a Club Red match ticket.

Mr Barrett had never been to an MK Dons game before the Doncaster win and he said: "It's a great thing to do and I don't think I've ever won a competition before this."

"Will Grigg's form has been great and it's some going for him to score the goals he has."

"I'd love to see us sign him but I don't think we'll be able to afford him."

MK NEWS and MKWeb have teamed up with the club to honour the best performing player every month.

One fan who votes will be randomly selected to win the tickets, as well as the chance to present the award to the winner on the pitch.

TACKLING TRAFFIC

RESIDENTS in Beanhill said traffic was a 'nightmare' during the Northampton Saints v Saracens rugby game at stadiummk on Saturday.

John Clarke said: Supporters parked their cars either at the shops or along the various roads on the estate. I had a large four-wheel drive vehicle across my drive."

Milton Keynes Council said: "When you have something on this scale, of course there are going to be some traffic issues. We are sorry where there was an impact on businesses or residents but we have to strike a balance."

ELECTION DEBATE

Passions run high

A HEATED debate among candidates contesting the Milton Keynes North seat in the General Election on May 7 took place at Milton Keynes Council's Civic Offices.

Chaired by MK NEWS and MKFM, the event last Wednesday gave the public a chance to ask the would-be MPs what they would do for the city.

Housing was a hot topic, as was healthcare.

Here's what the candidates said...

MORE ONLINE

The debate for candidates in MK South took place last night. For all the details visit

mkweb.co.uk

Mark Lancaster (Conservative)

"Help To Buy has helped people and my colleagues on the panel have failed to say how they plan to find money for their promises." "The Conservatives have committed £8 billion to healthcare."

Emily Darlington (Labour)

"We need a lot more council houses and we will ensure developers build affordable homes."

"The number of people waiting for more than a week to see their GP has gone up across the city."

Sam Crooks (Lib Dem representing Paul Graham)

"We need more houses and to help with shared ownership."

"I have no problem with outsourcing elements to help the HS deal with capacity issues, but this should be done to help, not as an alternative."

Jenny Marklew (Green Party)

"It is something we have got to address properly, we need to look at the rental market and putting rent caps on."

"People mistake business for efficiency when we need to make public services such as healthcare more efficient."

David Mortimer (Independent)

"We have got a lot of people that have been cut out of the housing market if they haven't got the bank of mum and dad."

"Funding by Private Finance Initiatives will cost more money so services should be brought back within the NHS."

David Reilly (UKIP)

"We need to erect one property every seven minutes to deal with housing demand and we need to look at the demand as well as the supply."

"I don't think it would be irrational for us to consider building another hospital in Milton Keynes."

An epic ride ahead

BY JESSICA DUNCAN

jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

MORE than 30 cyclists will be taking on an epic challenge to raise money for Willen Hospice.

For eight days in September, the 32 riders, including three women, will tackle 800 miles, two mountains and part of the Tour de France climbs.

The Ride for Willen team, who range in age from their 20s to their 50s and are from Olney and the surrounding area, have been training for months in a bid to raise £100,000 for the hospice.

They will start in Paris on September 18 and cycle to Nice via Alpe d'Huez and Mont Ventoux.

Willen Hospice fundraising manager Lorna O'Herlihy said: "The fundraising ideas, the dedication and the commitment being shown by the Ride for Willen team is just phenomenal and everyone at Willen Hospice would like to thank them for their incredible support."

So far the team has raised more than £18,000.

To donate, or volunteer to help, email rideforwillen@hotmail.com

Mike Gunn shoots to the top of comedy bill

MIKE Gunn will be the headline act at the Comedy Cow on Friday, May 15.

Gunn's history is as interesting and entertaining as his comedy. He's about as cynical as it gets thanks to his misspent youth and his adult life involved plenty of jobs which you'd rather not have.

He admits quite freely that he's pessimistic and he might not appear your traditional stand-up act. He pushes the boundaries but remains a likeable character. He has supported the likes of Jo Brand and Alan Davies and is currently on tour with Lee Mack.

Other acts that will take to the stage include Tamar Broadbent, who is a comedian and an award-winning songwriter.

Technology loving geek Sanderson Jones will also perform, who sold out the Sydney Opera House in 2012 after selling every ticket by hand.

Tickets for the gig at the red dot bar at stadiummk, which cost £10, are available at www.ticketsource.co.uk. The show begins at 8.15pm and doors open at 7.30pm.

calcuttabrasserie

DO YOU always order the same curry? Are you worried that if you choose something else you might be disappointed?

Now Calcutta Brasserie has the perfect solution – its new Combi Menu.

Featuring more than 30 dishes, it allows customers to pick their favourite and then try something else to broaden their palette – for free.

As someone who finds it difficult to decide what to order, this menu by the restaurant, which is set in a 17th century Grade II-listed chapel in St Pauls Court, Stony Stratford, was the answer to my prayers.

My husband and I were pleasantly surprised to see it was so busy on a Wednesday evening.

We ordered firm favourites garlic chicken and daab chingri (king prawns in a coconut, ginger and chilli sauce) with rice and a naan.

As our extra dishes we chose salmon ka tukra and lamb kosha mangsho.

Our usual dishes didn't disappoint, while the slow cooked lamb – a meat we never normally have in a curry – was tender and a perfect match for the caramelised onion and ginger sauce.

The salmon fillets, which were marinated in fennel, ginger and mustard oil before being barbecued, were delicious and, served with a dressed salad, were a healthier alternative to the sauce-based dishes we usually choose.

To help MK LIFE readers discover a new favourite, we have teamed up with Calcutta Brasserie to give one lucky curry lover and a friend the chance to be among the first to try the new menu, which is served Monday to Thursday.

For your chance to be a winner, answer this question: Where is Calcutta Brasserie located?

king's speech

MK Theatre

Out and about

Columnists

AHEAD of The King's Speech arriving at Milton Keynes Theatre, MK LIFE has spoken to Raymond Coulthard, who will be playing George VI.

He said: "The stage production is very different to the film and speaking to audiences they have said they prefer the production."

"The play goes into more of the political background, George's brother's abdication and the impact of the Second World War."

"Vocally, George VI's stutter is exhausting, especially being able to project in a big theatre, and it is the most challenging part I have ever done."

"I watched videos of George VI on YouTube and then just let the stutter develop."

Raymond will be starring alongside Jason Donovan, who will be playing speech therapist Lionel Logue.

He added: "It is so strange having watched Jason Donovan in Neighbours to now be working with him."

"We have developed an incredible strong and comfortable 'bromance'."

"He is a really hard working, nice guy."

"The play is a very different experience and I am looking forward to bringing it to Milton Keynes."

The production runs from Tuesday until Saturday, May 9. Performances will take place each day at 7.30pm, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday at 2.30pm. Tickets cost from £10 to £29.50 at www.atgtickets.com

beerfestival

MORE than 700 people are expected to visit a three-day Sausage and Beer Festival in Sherrington over the bank holiday weekend.

The annual event, which is now in its 16th year, is held at The White Hart pub and raises money for Willen Hospice.

Starting at noon on Saturday and finishing at 5pm on Bank Holiday Monday, the event will feature a wide range of real ales, cider and locally-sourced sausages. There will also be live music.

The festival is strictly for over 18s only after 6pm each day and there will be ID checks on entrance.

For more information on the festival visit www.mkweb.co.uk

cakedecorating

MASTER the craft of cupcake decorating with a class at Frosts Garden Centre on Friday.

Frosts' professional tutor will guide the class through piping swirls and roses and hand making decorations from coloured sugar paste.

Participants will also learn how to master the butter cream swirl. At the end of the workshop everyone will have six beautifully decorated cupcakes to take home and enjoy.

The two-hour workshop will take place at the centre in Woburn Sands. There will be sessions at 10am and 1pm and tickets cost £40.

Pre-booking is essential.

For more information on Frosts' Country Living Workshops and to book, visit www.frostsgroup.com or call 0800 954 9484.

WITH frost disappearing, young plants, including canna and dahlia, can now be hardened off (outside in the day and protected at night) for planting out.

Successive sowings of vegetables will be in progress. Ensure you are thinning out seedlings to get the best from your crops. Keep soil moist and harvest crops as they become ready.

Lawns could benefit from a high nitrogen feed. If you suffer from moss put on a combined feed and moss killer. If it is weeds you are dealing with, treat with a lawn weedkiller.

Pond plants can be put into the water. Established plants should be cut back or thinned

JAMES FROST, managing director of Frosts' Garden Centre in Woburn Sands, has some tips for your garden out. Top dress any old plants with aquatic soil and feed which is specific to pond plants.

Clematis montana can be cut back and tidied up following flowering.

Eucalyptus can also be cutback to coppice to provide a bushy plant with lots of fresh blue fragrant foliage.

As the temperature warms up, more pests and diseases become prevalent. Keep an eye out for red lily beetle, aphids, vine weevil, caterpillars, powdery mildew and black spot on roses and treat as required.

What Your Agent Has To Say

Surge in buyers trying to find new homes

I WOULD like to begin by saying we have had one of the best starts to the year in terms of sales agreed and instruction levels. March and April's sales results have been particularly phenomenal.

I think the main reason for this increased sales activity is that there seems to be a lot more confidence in the market generally from prospective buyers, coupled with a really strong appetite for home ownership rather than renting.

I believe the other key factor to be that mortgage lenders appear to be relaxing their criteria for lending and are accepting buyers that are looking to both invest/purchase their dream home with smaller deposits, compared to a couple of years ago.

One of our biggest challenges in today's market place is a shortage of new properties to meet the increased demand. I'm not entirely sure why there has been a slowdown in terms of new instructions. However, spring is definitely upon us, the sun appears to be shining (some days) and we certainly have good buyers in fantastic buying positions looking to invest in their new homes.

At Simpson and Partners we pride ourselves on giving honest and realistic advice to all of our clients, be it selling their family home or purchasing onwards. Please ensure that you are registered with your local property experts to enable us to give you our full attention and provide you with a bespoke property searching or selling service.

We currently have a campaign to receive £250 worth of John Lewis vouchers for any new instructions received before the May 31 so please call the office on 01480 850 600 quoting 'John Lewis' to take part in this fantastic offer.

New Ford Vignale Mondeo Launches

Ford Motor Company has unveiled the production version of the Ford Vignale Mondeo – the first vehicle to be introduced as part of Ford's new Vignale brand. Each Ford Vignale model is hand-finished in a special Vignale Centre at Ford's manufacturing facility in Valencia, Spain. Available in four-door and estate bodystyles, the Ford Vignale Mondeo delivers superior refinement with the European debut of Ford's Active Noise Cancellation technology, quilted and tuxedo-stitched leather interior and exclusive Vignale Nocciola metallic paintcolour.

Customers can now use Ford's new dedicated Ford Vignale internet destination and online configurator to explore options and pricing. The car will be available to order from May at new flagship FordStores opening across the UK, priced from £29,045.

The Ford Vignale Mondeo delivers advanced technologies including Pre-Collision Assist with Pedestrian Detection, which can reduce the severity of some frontal collisions involving vehicles and pedestrians, or help drivers avoid some impacts altogether. Powerful and fuel efficient powertrains include Ford's new 210PS Bi-turbo 2.0-litre TDCi diesel, 240PS EcoBoost petrol, and 187PS petrol-electric hybrid. Ford's Intelligent All-Wheel Drive (iAWD) which automatically enhances traction and road-holding, is also available.

Vignale customers will also receive a personalised service for the duration of their vehicle ownership, supported by a Vignale relationship manager and 24-hour free-phone assistance from the Vignale OneCall service.

Ford's new Vignale Service smartphone app will support customers with GPS-enabled services including Vignale Park Me, which allows drivers to record an exact location and time elapsed since parking their vehicle. Using online map data, the app can also help drivers locate fuel stations, and provides a one-touch connection with emergency services or Vignale OneCall.

The new Vignale Mondeo delivers a whisper-quiet, smooth and comfortable ride using sophisticated technologies and an advanced chassis structure. Ford's innovative Active Noise Cancellation system enhances interior refinement. Using three cabin microphones, the system is able to monitor engine noise in the interior. Advanced audio technology directs opposing sound waves through the audio system to cancel out engine noise and improve cabin ambience. The car's interior also features enhanced sound insulation to better isolate road noise from the cabin. Acoustic glass helps reduce wind noise to levels normally experienced only in the premium segment.

Ford's integral link rear suspension offers a smoother ride, in particular for rear seat passengers, and reduces noise levels by allowing the wheels to move further rearwards on impact with uneven road surfaces. For front seat passengers, comfort can be optimised by Ford Multi-Contour Seats with Active Motion massage function. Designed to reduce muscle fatigue, particularly during longer journeys, the seats use a system of 11 inflatable cushions to deliver an unobtrusive massaging effect for thighs and lower back.

Ford Vignale Mondeo seats are offered in exclusive Vignale leather trim. Laser-cut for high precision, the material features unique Vignale hexagonal quilting and tuxedo stitching with soft-touch elements that extend to the instrument panel, centre console, arm-rest, and door top-rolls.

The model's exclusive status is confirmed with dedicated 18in Vignale alloy wheels and exclusive Vignale Nocciola colour. The Ford Mondeo Vignale features metallic paint as standard, with further options including Vignale Black, Vignale Silver and premium four-coat Vignale White.

The Ford Vignale Mondeo offers sophisticated driver assistance technologies and equipment that contribute to a simplified and stress-free experience, such as Pre-Collision Assist with Pedestrian Detection.

An advanced Sony DAB audio and navigation system with 12 hi-fidelity speakers is also offered, and comfort and convenience are further enhanced for drivers with features including a power-adjustable, memory-equipped steering column, as well as power tailgate and heated steering wheel.

Improving safety for rear-seat passengers, Ford's industry-first Inflatable Rear Seatbelts rapidly expand in the event of an accident to disperse crash forces across a body area five times greater than that achieved by a conventional seatbelt.

Each Ford Vignale model is hand-finished by six master craftspeople at the new state-of-the-art Vignale Centre, where vehicles are individually tailored to customer specification. The Vignale Centre at Ford's Valencia manufacturing facility blends traditional craftsmanship with cutting-edge technology. The latest laser and camera technology supports skilled eyes in closely examining quality aspects including panel alignment and paint finish, helping meet customer expectations.

Ford Vignale models are exclusively available to order in the UK from FordStore locations opening across the country, primarily in metropolitan areas. FordStores are dedicated to the Ford brand and offer the full range of Ford products and services, with specially-trained Vignale staff available to meet specific customer needs. Ford is initially launching 200 FordStores across Europe, including 54 in the UK by the end of 2015 and rising to around 70 in the future.

NEW CAR REVIEW

Nissan Juke STILL CRAZY

If you need a car that blends into the background look somewhere else. Nissan's Juke has sold like hot cakes and the latest update keeps the design extreme but adds smarter technology, cleaner engines and more personalisation options.

Though the existing 110PS 1.5-litre dCi diesel continues unchanged, there's otherwise quite a bit of change to report beneath the Juke's stubby bonnet when it comes to the pair of petrol powerplants on offer: one is new to the Juke and the other extensively revised. The 1.2-litre DIG-T petrol engine, developed in conjunction with partners Renault, replaces the original model's aging 1.6-litre unit and features turbocharging and direct injection to deliver 115ps and 190Nm of torque. Despite its modest size, this 1197cc turbo four packs a real punch, offering sharper acceleration and greater torque than the old 1.6-litre naturally aspirated motor. The popular 1.6 DIG-T turbo petrol unit has been further improved to deliver lower end torque below 2,000rpm. Producing 190PS, this is available in both front and all-wheel drive versions. Go for an all-wheel drive variant and you have the option to specify the Xtronic transmission gearbox, which further improves fuel efficiency and acceleration.

The Juke's elevated stance but diminutive overall length doesn't promise a stellar driving experience, but as the last model proved, within a few yards you'll realise that this is a fun car to hustle about. Nissan Dynamic Control helps here; an advanced driver control system giving the choice of three different driving modes, Normal, Sport or Eco, along with instant driving information and vehicle setting controls. The torque vectoring system on the latest all-wheel drive model incorporates technology that Nissan initially used to such devastating effect on their GTR supercar-slayer.

Yes, the Juke does still look like either something dredged up from the abyssal depths of the ocean or a fun, friendly and futuristic little runabout, depending on your perspective. Whichever camp you're in, you have to hand it to Nissan for not losing its resolve and watering this version down. At the front, the upper lamps have been redesigned and now incorporate bi-intensity LED daytime running lamps, while the headlamps now have Xenon bulbs for better visibility. Door mirrors get LED indicators and, where fitted, cameras for the Around View Monitor. Bumpers, tail lights, alloy wheels and available colours have all been tweaked. The Sunlight Yellow metallic is sure to be popular with those who resolutely refuse to blend in. Nissan also offers coloured inserts which can be applied to the mirror caps, side sills, roof spoiler and door handles in order to further personalise the exterior.

You probably know the guy who complains that all new cars look the same but has nothing good to say when Nissan brings out something different and fresh. Don't be that guy. The Juke has deservedly carved itself a lucrative niche for itself with an inexpensive vehicle that drives well, is cheap to run and which isn't afraid to assert its own personality. The latest changes don't alter that fundamental appeal but adding tech inside and some updated petrol engines certainly isn't going to do the Juke's prospects any harm.

Should Nissan have gone a little further with the exterior changes? I'm not so sure. The Juke was already an extreme-looking thing and going overboard with styling updates would have smacked of trying too hard. As it stands, it'll continue to be the car that none of its rivals have come close to answering.

It could be an historic day

IT'S the last game of the season against Yeovil Town on Sunday and I'm actually really looking forward to it.

We have achieved 25 out of a possible 27 points over the last two months and we could get to 91 points on Sunday, which would be incredible.

Everybody's attitude for the whole 46 games has been brilliant and I'm sure Preston have looked at it and wondered how they aren't promoted after going 18 games unbeaten.

I think it's slightly better being the team chasing and they'll have a few more nerves than what we do.

Having won eight and drawn one of our last nine games it's a little bit frustrating we've not been rewarded a bit better but it's not frustrating in the way we have gone about our performances.

They've been fairly convincing victories and there has been very few goals conceded and lots of goals scored.

We want to at least do our part on Sunday and what happens 100 miles away at Colchester where Preston play will happen.

We need to tick our box and it could be a historic day so I'm sure plenty of people in Milton Keynes will want to be a part of that.

If we do our bit and Preston do theirs then we want to go into the play-offs with some momentum.

In terms of the Player of the Year for Dons, I have a fairly long list of who I would choose!

David Martin has broken the club's clean sheet record and the two centre backs Kyle McFadzean and Antony Kay have been fantastic and a big part of the club's success.

Dean Lewington has been massively influential and Darren Potter is one of the most unsung heroes in this team, along with Will Grigg, who epitomises everything you need in a centre forward.

Dele Alli has been the best player in League One and he will achieve massive things so I'm sure most people won't look further than him but there are so many other players who go about their job week in, week out with no fuss.

There's been plenty of things to celebrate this season and there have been some fantastic individual and team performances among that.

■ Richie was speaking prior to the Player of the Year awards last night.

Lightning change at club

IT HAS been a busy week at MK Lightning as a new head coach has been installed, five players have confirmed they will play for the club next season, and four have left.

Netminder Stephen Wall has been released by Lightning after three years at the club, while Petr Horava, Milan Kostourek and Curtis Huppe will also move on.

GB Senior Head Coach

Pete Russell is the new director of hockey and head coach after Nick Poole was announced as the club's general manager.

"I have a philosophy of how the game should be played and I can't wait to implement it in MK," said Russell.

"I am really looking forward to working in Milton Keynes with the Lightning programme. We have a strong vision which I am honoured to be part of."

Poole admitted he was disappointed at not being able to continue coaching the team but was looking forward to the new challenge.

He said: "Obviously at first there was a sense of disappointment that I would not be coaching the team but after a few weeks of reflection I can see the benefits of a change of responsibility and new direction."

But Blaz Emersic and Lewis Hook confirmed they would be playing for Lightning again next season. Bobby Chamberlain has also joined, while James Griffin is on a two-way contract with Coventry Blaze.

Rene Jarolin has also signed from Elite League side Edinburgh Capitals.

RUGBY

SIX Stephen Myler penalties got Northampton Saints over the line in a thrilling Premiership Rugby encounter with Saracens at stadiummk.

Saints had trailed for the majority of the match but found their feet late on and Myler's stellar performance from the tee proved to be the difference in front of 27,411 fans at stadiummk.

Saracens threatened early and carved out the game's first try from a rolling maul as they swung the ball left and Chris Wyles ran over unopposed with Charlie Hodgson adding the extras.

Northampton got themselves on the board after nine minutes when Saracens strayed offside and Myler turned over the penalty.

Stellar performance: Stephen Myler

Myler added a second shortly after to put Saints 7-6 down and a converted try apiece made it 14-13 before Sarries added a penalty to make it 17-13.

Saints started the second-half with renewed vigour but were being punished for small errors and Hodgson was on hand to move Sarries 20-13 ahead after 47 minutes.

A couple of penalties reduced their arrears to one point again before another pair of penalties gave Saints a 25-20 advantage.

Myler had the chance to score again but saw his kick bounce back off the posts.

MOTORSPORTS

MK-BASED sportscar team Napier Racing and driver Andy Napier set aside wet set-up gremlins to take home both a class win and second place trophy in the first Classic Sports Car Club meeting of 2015 at Snetterton 300 circuit in their Lotus Elise.

The team made hard work for themselves in the New Millennium series race for post year 2000 cars by gambling on a dry setup for an increasingly wet session.

However, this poor performance was rectified in the qualifying sessions for the weekend's open Sports vs Saloons race and Modern Classics series, where Napier qualified fifth and second overall on capacity grids.

During the two 40-minute races the first-in-class finish in Modern Classics was achieved by some margin, with Napier finishing 13 places ahead of the next car in class.

In Sports vs Saloons the Lotus was pegged back to second only by a Renaultsport Clio with a considerable power advantage.

Napier Racing are back on track again on Sunday May 10 at Silverstone.

STONY Stratford had a difficult start to their Northamptonshire Cricket League season after losing to Rushden Town by 238 runs.

Last throw of the dice

THIS is it - after an incredible run of 10 games without defeat, Dons have just one more go at achieving promotion outright against Yeovil Town this Sunday lunchtime.

Dons must better Preston North End's result if they want to finally overhaul the Lilywhites and claim that all-important second place, which would mean automatic promotion to the Championship.

Dons have been chasing the Deepdale side for weeks, but Preston themselves have gone on an 18-game unbeaten league run, so Dons have done exceptionally well to keep up.

On Sunday, Preston travel to Colchester United, who are embroiled in a huge relegation battle and who must themselves win to ensure their League One survival, while Dons entertain bottom club Yeovil.

If Preston match or do better than Dons on Sunday, then the playoffs beckon for a Dons side which has amassed a fantastic 88 points this season, which in any other season would have been enough to secure promotion already.

Whatever happens, manager Karl Robinson is proud of what his players have done since August 2014, and he says it is now just a one-game season.

"I don't think anybody at the football club can do anything but applaud Preston's run," said Robinson.

"I'm sure they'll say the same about ours and I'm sure they would have thought we'd have gone away by this point.

"Sometimes you've got to tip your cap but I'm sure they'll be saying the same about us.

"It's a one-game season now and we'll certainly do our utmost on Sunday. Milton Keynes has a team to be proud of this season.

"The fans have really driven us on and it's a special time to be an MK Dons fan."

Ben Reeves should be fit for the weekend, but Darren Potter had a scan on Monday after limping off in the warm-up before Dons' 3-2 win over Rochdale on Saturday, so it remains to be seen whether he will be fit for the mouth-watering tie on Sunday, which kicks off at 12.15pm.

Carl Baker crowned the Dons Player of the Year

CARL Baker was crowned the Dons Player of the Year during a glittering ceremony at stadiummk last night.

Many were expecting Dele Alli to win the main award but he will have been more than happy to take home the Player's Player of the Year prize.

Striker Will Grigg won the Goal of the Season award for his audacious chested goal against Manchester United in the 4-0 win in August and a special highlights reel was shown of that incredible game on the night.

Chairman Pete Winkelman said: "This has been the most sensational year that I can remember being involved in."

LABOUR: Tackling soaring childcare costs

25 HOURS OF FREE CHILDCARE FOR WORKING PARENTS

TOO MANY FAMILIES are faced with difficult choices about balancing work and family life. Some parents who want to work are being prevented from doing so because the rising cost of childcare makes it unaffordable.

Under the current Government the problem is getting worse. Childcare costs have soared by 30 per cent and David Cameron has broken his promise to protect Sure Start, with 628 fewer Children's Centres since 2010.

FREE CHILDCARE

Labour will expand free childcare from 15 to 25 hours per week for working parents with three and four-year-olds, and we will introduce a legal guarantee that parents of primary-aged children can access childcare from 8am to 6pm through their local school.

"David Cameron has broken his promise to protect Sure Start, with 628 fewer Children's Centres since 2010."

TORIES CUT FRONTLINE POLICING

NEARLY 17,000 POLICE OFFICERS HAVE BEEN CUT UNDER THE TORY-LED GOVERNMENT

THE TORIES are putting the safety of our communities at risk. The first duty of any government is to keep its people safe, yet David Cameron has shown complacency on crime and justice. Frontline policing has been cut, and the shift to neighbourhood policing achieved under the last Labour government has been put at risk.

Labour will protect frontline policing, ensuring the police force is rooted in our community. We will scrap wasteful Police and Crime Commissioners and put the savings back into frontline policing. Labour will raise professional standards while enabling communities to have greater say over local policing priorities.

Tackling violence against women and girls is also a priority for Labour, and we will publish the country's first ever Violence Against Women and Girls Bill, establish a Commissioner on domestic and sexual violence, and protect women's refuges.
